PPAC funded for OSHC upgrades

PPAC has been funded by the Federal Department of Education, Skills & Employment's (DESE's) Minor Capital Works Fund to meet licensing requirements for our Outside School Hours Care service (OSHC).

OSHC is an education and care service that helps children to engage in play and leisure activities; learn new skills for further their development and build relationship with educators in the community who are connected to, but separate, from the school community.

CEO Ganthi Kuppusamy said they were grateful for the DESE's assistance.

"PPAC would like to thank DESE for supporting PPAC with funding for these OSHC improvements," she said.

"They will enable us to achieve service approval to deliver quality and safe services for the children."

Works done included: new security gates and fences; shade sail replacement; adequate storage space; air conditioning replaced/maintained; building inspection and certification; appropriate lease agreement; minor repairs; fridge and freezer; playground upgrade and a new vehicle.

PPAC OSHC hours:

*3pm to 5pm (Monday to Thursday)

*1:30pm to 5pm (Friday)

*when school finishes

Vacation care during school holidays is from 9am to 4:30pm Monday to Friday
